

08 Jan 2013

The plea of the applicant and respondents have been heard. Both are Widows - the applicant and the daughter in law - the respondent. The respondent is getting a monthly salary of Rs 10,000/- employed as a peon in a Private Co. at Bhadrachalam and is having two sons - 11 yrs and 9 yrs - school going kids.

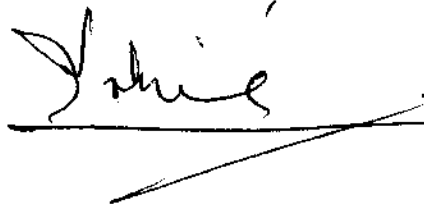

In such a case, Compensation from a widow daughter in law can not be forced by the Tribunal. Both have been advised to reconcile within family on mutual understanding & needs.

The Case is closed for further hearing.

P.O

Members 1.

2.

